MS.A.9.2.3.43

Dear Mrs Seabury,

I regret very much that I am compelled to give up the pleasure of passing this evening with you, but in the change of weather yesterday I took so severe a cold that I do not dare to venture out in the dampness. I regret this the more as I leave so soon, but shall certainly call to-morrow, if the weather permits.

With much love
to Caroline & Louisa
I am most truly
yours D. Weston.

Thursday May 4th.

Mrs Seabury
